

Time

Typically, I like to allow up to 2-3 weeks to come up with a first draft design. Inspiration happens when least expected. To me, that's the beauty of it. However, I've been known to work well under pressure so if you have a deadline we need to meet just say the word and I'll have it done. Once a design is complete and approved by you, printing/matting/framing etc. can be another week or two depending on the options you choose. So, all in all, the process can be two weeks to a month before a final product is in your hands.

Pricing

Here is a link to my pricelist; <http://www.bjwcreative.com/pricelist.pdf> Please choose a print size, matting/framing is optional and select either Option A or B as a creative fee.

50% Deposit

I will create a Reserved Listing under your name in my shop. The listing will be for 50% of your total cost less s/h. You need to purchase this listing following the steps provided on the website by adding the item to your cart and checking out. This will leave me your 50% deposit. Once I have your deposit I will start to design your piece.

Final Payment

Once I have a design for you to review, I will create a second listing in my online store. This listing will be priced at the remainder of your balance. The images in the listing will be of the print I designed for you. If you accept the design you will need to purchase the listing to complete your transaction with me. I cannot print your piece until the final payment has been made.

Revisions

If you would like to see any changes to the piece I designed at your request please email me or use the "convo" option in my online store. I offer unlimited revisions to the original design - this is your piece and it needs to resonate as such. Your changes might include: color, scale of an object, position etc. I cannot create a whole new piece as a revision.

Refunds

It is important to remember that you are purchasing artwork. At the start, I do not know what the final product is going to be and as a result I cannot make guarantees. However, I will do my best to listen to your ideas and meet your needs. In certain cases refunds will be granted minus the creative fee. The creative fee is meant to cover the time I spent on creating your design.
